Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia

MARY WASHINGTON COLLEGE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA is located in America's most historic city amidst the finest traditions of Old Virginia, near our Nation's Capital, and accessible to the great centers of culture of the East. From the campus one can view the scenes of George Washington's boyhood; the home and tomb of his mother; and the gracious mansion, Kenmore, residence of his sister. A short distance away are Wakefield, his birthplace, Mount Vernon, and many other national shrines. The college is truly unique in loveliness of location, beauty of surroundings, and historic heritage. Considering the historic significance of Fredericksburg and the fact that it is one of the most cultural communities in America, it would be difficult to find a more fitting place for a college or an environment more stimulating.

This is a delightful place to spend the summer. The social and recreational opportunities and facilities are exceptional—spacious campus, beautiful groves, two roof gardens, large recreation halls, commodious indoor and outdoor swimming pools, picturesque golf course on campus, amphitheatre, motion pictures, tennis court, gymnasium, athletic fields, saddle horses, and rustic camp with cabin including all conveniences.

In addition, there are formal receptions and dinners, teas, formal and informal entertainment, tours, etc. A delightful home atmosphere adds to the contentment and happiness of the student body.

HISTORIC FREDERICKSBURG

Known as "America's Most Historic City," Fredericksburg itself offers a delightful opportunity for study of the Colonial backgrounds of American history. Almost in sight of the college are the home of Mary Washington, now administered as a shrine by the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities; the grave of Mary Washington and Meditation Rock, her favorite retreat; Kenmore, the home of George Washington's sister, built in 1752 and a magnificent specimen of Colonial architecture. Other shrines in the City of Fredericksburg include the Rising Sun Tavern, rendezvous of Richard Henry Lee, George Mason, Thomas Jefferson, Hugh Mercer, James Monroe, and others; the Law Office of James Monroe, fifth president of the United States; the Hugh Mercer Apothecary Shop, the first in America and a gathering place of patriots; the Masonic Lodge, where Washington was made a Mason; St. George's Church, of which the Rev. Patrick Henry, uncle of the famous orator, was the first rector; and George Washington's Boyhood Home, located immediately across the river from Fredericksburg.

The City of Fredericksburg is rich also in historical relics of the War Between the States. Historic Brompton, now a part of the college grounds, was the headquarters for the Confederates, and was the center of the Federal attack in both the first and second battles of Fredericksburg. Nearby is the National Cemetery, where lie the remains of 15,000 Northern soldiers who lost their lives on adjacent battlefields. The college itself is situated on Marye's Heights, scene of some of the bitterest fighting of the War. Just beyond the eastern end of the campus is the National Battlefield Museum, which houses one of the greatest collections of Civil War relics in America. Adjacent to Fredericksburg are the National Military Parks preserving the battlefields of four of the most important conflicts of the War: Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Spotsylvania Court House, and the Wilderness.

RECREATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Mary Washington College offers unusual opportunities for recreation during the summer. The spacious tree-fringed open-air swimming pool is open all the afternoon daily, with trained life guards on duty. A terrace for sun bathing is nearby. There are frequent pool parties at night under floodlights. During the summer at least one aquacade is staged. There are also two smaller outdoor pools and an indoor pool.

A long row of all-weather tennis courts extends from Willard Hall to the open-air swimming pool. There are enough courts to provide ample facilities for playing at any hour of the day. Instruction in tennis, as well as golf, swimming, archery, and badminton, is offered by the staff of the Physical Education Department.

Dances are held each Friday evening on one of the roof gardens. The roof garden atop George Washington Hall offers a sweeping panorama of the countryside surrounding the college. Refreshments are served from penthouses opening upon the roof garden.

The Oak Hill Stables are located a short distance from the western side of the campus. Thirty fine saddle horses are available. There are early morning riding classes if desired. Riding may be taken either for credit in physical education or for recreation. An attractively furnished club house is available at the Oak Hill Stables where parties and picnics are frequently held. There are interesting riding trails in the nearby battlefield parks.

Other facilities for recreation include a picturesque nine-hole golf course on the campus, a rustic camp with cabin equipped for overnight parties, a large auditorium with the latest type standard motion picture equipment, and open-air theatre seating 2,000.

TRIPS AND TOURS

Arrangements have been made for a series of trips to national shrines, historical places, art galleries and museums, and state and national parks, all of which are in easy driving distance of Fredericksburg. The cost of these trips is very reasonable. Transportation will be provided for a nominal charge, and lunches will be furnished by the college dining hall. Many of the places to be visited charge no admission; others charge an individual or group admission fee.

The cost of each trip will be announced in advance in order that students may sign up each week for the trip they wish to take. Members of the college faculty and staff will accompany the party and discuss informally with the group the places visited.

Trips will be made in a luxurious air-conditioned bus of the most modern type recently purchased by the College. Accommodating thirty-seven students, the bus is equipped with individual reclining seats, wide-view windows, and air-foam upholstery.

SCHEDULE OF TRIPS

Saturday, June 23—Visit to Mt. Vernon and Pohick Church; Arlington, Tomb of Unknown Soldier and Lee's Home; historic Alexandria and Masonic Memorial.

Saturday, June 30—Visit to Wakefield, birthplace of George Washington; Stratford, home of Robert E. Lee; and Westmoreland State Park (salt water bathing).

Saturday, July 7—Visit to Richmond (Virginia Museum of Art, White House of the Confederacy, Battle Abbey, Poe Shrine, State Capital, St. John's Church).

Saturday, July 14—Visit to Folger Shakespeare Library, Library of Congress, Capitol, Washington Monument, and Lincoln Memorial.

Saturday, July 21—Visit to Colonial Williamsburg, Jamestown, and Yorktown.

Saturday, July 28—Visit to Luray Caverns and trip on Skyline Drive (Shenandoah National Park).

Saturday, August 4—Visit to National Museum of Art and Corcoran Art Gallery.

BUILDINGS AND ACCOMMODATIONS

The college plant, with an estimated value of more than $25,000,000, includes the administration building, the library, classroom buildings, the science hall, the infirmary, dining halls, fourteen well-equipped residence halls, an amphitheatre, a central heating plant, laundry, President's home, and other buildings.

The Fine Arts Center, an extensive group of buildings, completed in September 1952, provides accommodations for art, music, dramatics, and speech. John Garland Pollard Hall, the north building in this group, is devoted exclusively to music. Gari Melchers Hall, the south building, is devoted to art.

Another recent addition to the college facilities is Ann Carter Lee Hall, the student center. Completed at a cost of over $750,000, this building houses a modern indoor swimming pool, bowling alleys, large reception halls, two lounge rooms, a tea room known as the Terrace Room, and other facilities for student activities and recreation.

Residence Halls

Throughout the college, care has been exercised to surround the students with comfort and an atmosphere in keeping with academic dignity. Each of the residence halls is in charge of a full-time hostess or counselor, who also serves as housemother. There are reception rooms and drawing rooms in each of the halls where students entertain their guests, as well as many small parlors and lounge rooms for study or informal gatherings.

Living Accommodations

The residence halls provide ample and comfortable housing facilities, and afford every convenience and comfort—rooms with connecting bath, circulating ice water, beautifully appointed drawing rooms, lounge rooms, large porches and arcades, pressing rooms, kitchenettes, shower baths, incineration, etc.

The dormitory rooms are completely furnished with single beds, dressers, study tables, chairs, bookcases, and built-in closets. The student is expected to furnish four sheets, two pillow cases, bedspreads, towels, soap, and other articles desired.

A limited number of house-keeping apartments are available to married couples or mature students in Betty Lewis Hall, which is located just outside the college gates. Occupants may take their meals in the college dining halls if preferred. The apartments range in size from one to four rooms and are furnished as dormitory rooms. If an apartment is desired, full information, including rates, may be obtained from the Bursar of the college.

Dining Halls

Seacobeck Hall, one of the most beautiful buildings on the campus, contains five dining rooms, lounge rooms, a model kitchen, offices for the dietitians, and storage rooms. It is airy and well ventilated, and has the most modern equipment including a bakery, ice plant, and cold storage.

The artistically decorated dining halls, divided by French doors from the main lounge room with its beautiful dome lighting, large fireplace, deep carpet, and appropriate furnishings, provide a dignified setting for the formal dinners and banquets as well as a quiet and pleasant place in which to enjoy the routine meals of the day. Good and well-balanced meals are prepared and served under the direction of experienced dietitians.

SPECIAL GUESTS

Special all-inclusive rates are available to a limited number of alumnae or other special guests such as members of students' families or their friends, with the privilege of auditing certain classes if desired.

The rates cover furnished room, table board, and the use of all recreational facilities. There are small additional charges for participation in the scheduled tours and horseback riding, which are optional.

These accommodations are available either by the day or week and the charges are held to a minimum consistent with the cost of food and service. Rates may be obtained by writing to the Bursar of the college.

CONFERENCES, CONVENTIONS AND MEETINGS

The college has excellent facilities and accommodations for conferences, conventions, and meetings of various types. During the past few summers a great many conferences and group meetings have been held at the college.

It is customary to give special rates to persons attending these meetings. These groups are assigned special meeting places, separate rooming facilities, and a private dining hall, and are eligible to use the varied recreational facilities without extra cost.

For full information for dates available, rates, etc., write to the Bursar, Mary Washington College, Fredericksburg, Virginia.

THREE-YEAR DEGREE PROGRAM

The work for a degree at Mary Washington College can be completed in three calendar years by attending three general sessions and three summer sessions. Classes meet twice as often in the summer as in the general session, and it is possible to complete a semester's work in each of three courses by attending the eight weeks' term. There is a vacation period of five weeks between the close of the summer session and the beginning of the fall semester.

High school graduates who would normally enter college in September may begin with the summer session June 18 and complete a substantial portion of the first semester's work before the fall term. Every advantage to entering college in September may be had by students matriculating in June, with many additional advantages, including economy in time and money, since charges for the summer session are less than for the same period of time in the general session. A three-year degree program also enables young professional women to enter a productive occupation a whole year earlier.

FIVE-DAY SCHEDULE

Classes will be offered on Monday through Friday, with Saturday free for recreation or field trips and tours to historical spots, museums, etc. (See List of Tours.)

Classes will begin at 7:30 a.m. and extend for full one-hour periods until 1:00 p.m. with a fifteen-minute intermission at 10:40, according to the following schedule:

First Period	7:30- 8:30
Second Period	8:35- 9:35
Third Period	9:40-10:40
Fourth Period	10:55-11:55
Fifth Period	12:00- 1:00

No classes are scheduled for the afternoons.

DEGREES AND COURSE OFFERINGS

The college offers the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Science in Home Economics, Bachelor of Science in Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, Bachelor of Science in Medical Technology, and Bachelor of Science in Physical Therapy.

Music and Art.—Students majoring in Music, Art, or Dramatic Arts and Speech are eligible for the Bachelor of Arts degree.

Private instruction is offered in voice, piano, organ, and all string, reed, and brass instruments, as well as group instruction in the Band, Orchestra, Glee and Choral Clubs, and the history and appreciation of music.

Art students receive individual instruction in drawing, painting, design, and sculpture, and group instruction in interior decoration, appreciation, and other phases of art.

The College Theatre is an integral part of the Department of Dramatic Arts.

Home Economics.—Students majoring in this field are eligible for the Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics.

Physical Education.—This is a specialized curriculum leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

Nursing.—A program leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing is given in cooperation with the University of Virginia Hospital.

Teaching.—Although Mary Washington does not confer professional degrees in Education, students majoring in the various academic fields who wish to teach may qualify for the Collegiate Professional Certificate by taking the necessary courses as electives.

Elementary Education.—Students who wish to prepare for teaching in the elementary grades may major in psychology and take as electives the courses necessary to qualify for the Collegiate Professional Certificate. The degree of Bachelor of Arts is awarded.

Students who desire a more specialized preparation for elementary school teaching may enroll in a cooperative program leading to the Degree of Bachelor of Science in Education at the University of Virginia. This program provides that the first two years of general academic work be taken at Mary Washington College and the third and fourth years in the School of Education at the University of Virginia in Charlottesville.

Economics and Business Administration.—A liberal education with a major in Economics and Business Administration will appeal to students aspiring to executive or managerial positions in the field of business or those who may wish to qualify as commercial high school teachers.

SUMMER SECRETARIAL PROGRAM

In response to numerous requests for summer courses in shorthand and typewriting, Mary Washington College has inaugurated a special summer program in secretarial studies.

This program is designed for three classes of students:

- (1) High school graduates who wish to take a short intensive course to prepare for secretarial work.
- (2) Undergraduate college students, regardless of the institution they are attending during the regular session or the subject in which they are majoring, who wish during the summer to secure training in shorthand and typewriting.
- (3) College graduates who wish to take a special postgraduate course to qualify for secretarial positions.

There is a national shortage of women prepared for secretarial positions. The demand for college graduates with such training is particularly great. Mary Washington College has long enjoyed a national reputation for its courses offered in the Department of Economics and Business Administration (formerly Department of Commerce).

The new program provides for an eight-week intensive course in shorthand and typewriting. While the curriculum is designed for two summer sessions of eight weeks each, it is expected that many students will meet the minimum business requirements in one summer, especially those who have had some typewriting or shorthand in high school. However, no previous training in shorthand or typewriting is required.

The most modern equipment is available for the teaching of secretarial courses. Members of the regular staff of the Department of Economics and Business Administration will serve as instructors.

SPECIAL FIVE-WEEK COURSES FOR TEACHERS INTERESTED IN CERTIFICATE RENEWAL

June 18-July 20, 1956

Mary Washington College again offers a series of courses designed especially for teachers interested in obtaining credits for certificate renewal. Each course meets five times a week for one-and-a-half hours daily for five weeks and carries three semester hours credit. By taking these two courses, teachers may earn in five weeks the six semester hours of credit required for certificate renewal.

The five-week courses to be offered in the 1956 Summer Session are as follows:

Education 258. The Elementary School Curriculum. Current emphases and trends in curriculum development. Five hour-and-a-half periods a week for first five weeks. Three credits.

Education 259. Classroom Management. The administration of classroom activities, pupil guidance and methods of organization. Five hour-and-a-half periods a week for first five weeks. Three credits.

The college fees for the special five-week term (June 18-July 20) are as follows:

General college fees.....	$ 42.00
Library fee	3.00
Laundry fee	3.00
Infirmery fee	1.00
Student activity fee	3.00
Table board	49.50
Furnished room	20.00

Total charge to Residents of Virginia.....$121.50

Tuition for Non-Residents of Virginia 52.00

Total charge to Non-Residents of Virginia$173.50

STUDENT TEACHING FACILITIES

Facilities for student teaching in the elementary grades and in high school subjects are available during the summer session. Registration for this work should be made in advance, as the number of student teachers who can be accommodated is limited.

Further information concerning student teaching opportunities, credit, costs, etc., may be obtained from the office of the dean, Mary Washington College.

SUMMER SESSION 1956

COURSES OFFERED

The following courses will be available during the 1956 Summer Session if there is sufficient demand. The offering of any course is contingent upon the enrollment of enough students to justify the organization of a class.

Eight to ten semester hours credit may be earned in the summer session. Seniors who have satisfactory records may take up to twelve semester hours if necessary to complete their degrees at the end of the summer session.

Ordinarily each semester of a course carries a credit of three semester hours. If both semesters are completed, the credit is usually six semester hours. In the listing of courses below as "three or six credits," the determining factor is whether the student takes one or both semesters.

ART

Art 101-102. Drawing and Design. An introductory course in which emphasis is placed upon the expression of creative ideas and the development of skills in the use of art mediums. Two or four credits. Fee, $5.00 each semester.

Art 111-112. Art Appreciation. A brief survey of great periods in architecture, sculpture, painting, and the graphic arts. Three or six credits. Fee, $2.00 for each semester.

Art 250. Outdoor Sketching and Painting. Two credits. Fee, $5.00.

BIOLOGY

Biology 121-122. General Biology. General biological principles and their application; a survey of structure and function of representative plant and animal types, including man. Four or eight credits. Fee, $5.00 each semester.

CHEMISTRY

Chemistry 111-112. General Chemistry. A course designed to introduce the student to the fundamental laws of chemistry, the most important elements, and their compounds. Eight credits. Fee, $15.00 for the session.

Chemistry 201-202. Qualitative Analysis. Prerequisite: Chemistry 111-112, or its equivalent. This course covers briefly the theory and practice of qualitative analysis. Introductory quantitative analysis will be started during the second semester. Four or eight credits. Fee, $7.50 each semester.

Chemistry 311-312. Organic Chemistry. Prerequisite: Chemistry 111-112 or its equivalent. A course designed as an introduction to aliphatic and aromatic compounds. Eight credits. Fee, $15.00 for the session.

Chemistry 331-332. Quantitative Analysis. Prerequisite: Chemistry 201-202, or its equivalent. An introduction to the theory and technique of quantitative chemical analysis. Four or eight credits. Fee, $7.50 each semester.

COMMERCE

Commerce 111-112. Shorthand. Gregg Simplified Shorthand is taught. Shorthand theory is mastered the first semester. Dictation is emphasized the second semester, with dictation speeds ranging from 60 to 100 words a minute. Transcription of simple business letters occurs in the second semester. No credit.

Commerce 121-122. Typewriting. The proper techniques of typewriting and a mastery of the keyboard are developed. The form and content of business letters, addressing envelopes, centering, and tabulation are taught. A minimum speed of 35 words a minute should be attained. No credit.

Commerce 211-212. Advanced Shorthand. Prerequisite: Commerce 111-112 or its equivalent. Dictation is given from unfamiliar matter at rates varying from 80 to 120 words a minute. Increased emphasis is placed upon the development of speed and accuracy in transcription. Attention is given to arrangement, spelling, punctuation, etc. No credit.

Commerce 221-222. Typewriting and Office Practice. Prerequisite: Commerce 121-122 or its equivalent. Special stress is placed upon perfecting techniques in typewriting. The student is taught to write and arrange letters, manuscripts and continuous articles, tabulated reports, financial statements, etc. The course also provides opportunity for acquiring a working knowledge of dictating and transcribing machines, duplicating devices and machines, calculating machines, and miscellaneous office appliances. No credit.

See, also, Summer Secretarial Program.

ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Economics 201-202. Economic Principles and Problems. Fundamental economic principles relating to the production, exchange, consumption, and distribution of wealth; examination of basic economic problems. Three or six credits.

Economics 221-222. Introductory Accounting. A study of the fundamental accounting principles and practices in the recording and interpretation of accounting data. Three or six credits.

EDUCATION

Education 321-322. The principles and purposes of secondary education, the selection and organization of instructional materials, the direction and evaluation of pupil progress, and classroom organization and control. Three or six credits.

Education 411-412. History and Philosophy of Education. See Philosophy 411-412. Three or six credits.

Education 440. Supervised Teaching. Students are assigned to classroom teaching under supervision in the fields in which they are specializing. Opportunities for supervised teaching are available in both elementary grades and high school. Registration must be made in advance, as the number who can be accommodated is limited. Six credits.

STUDENTS ELIGIBLE FOR ADMISSION TO SUMMER SESSION

The college admits to its summer session:

(a) High school graduates who desire to enter college in June instead of waiting until September, and thus save much valuable time and expense;

(b) The ever-increasing number of students regularly enrolled in college who desire to continue their studies in the summer in order to complete the requirements for a degree in three calendar years instead of four; (see page 12.)

(c) Those who desire to make up some required work or to compensate for loss of time due to illness or some other reason;

(d) Students transferring from other standard colleges;

(e) Teachers who wish to renew or raise certificates or to take additional work toward a degree.

Applicants who are at least twenty-one years of age may be admitted as special students without satisfying the usual entrance requirements, provided they give evidence of serious purpose and show adequate preparation for the courses they wish to enter.

DIRECTIONS FOR ADMISSION

Students who wish to enroll for the Summer Session should file an application with the Director of Admissions. A form for requesting an application is contained in this bulletin. No application fee is required for enrollment in the Summer Session.
